Brooklyn paying from $20 to $40 monthly for stuffy and unhealthy flats. That our judgment was sound has been proven by the following facts: L-Our houses have been sold in the very middle of winter, at a time when comparatively few people have been thinking of suburban homes and other builders are at a standatill.

II.—Our buyers are intelligent, well-bred people, who have purchased after examination of other houses offered them in various neighborhoods, prov-ing beyond doubt that Flushing is the place eminently adapted to refined people of moderate means.

Twenty additional houses, some of which have already been sold, are now under way, and will be ready for occupancy May 1. They are of different designs, built after approved plans of some of our best architects, contain large hall, parlor, library, dining-room, kitchen and pantries on first floor, four sleeping rooms and bath on second (where desired one or two rooms may be finished in attic), cemented cellar, hot-air furnace, plate-glass doors, artistic hardwood mantles, with mirror tops; sanitary back-air plumbing, steel-clad bathtubs, stationary washtubs, nickel-plated fixtures, polished bardwood stairs, beautifully finished woodwork, large closets, bronze
